Class History

On September 2, 1941, one hundred ninety-nine prospective members of the class of '47 entered the portals of Mahlenberg Township High School for the first time. After six years of participation in sports, plays, debates, musical productions, and many other activities, these members now numbering one hundred twenty-four, are to be graduated.

While in seventh grade, the 7-1 homeroom presented the one act comedy, "Friday Afternoon at the District School," to the junior and senior assemblies.

At the close of their eighth year, the American Legion Awards were presented to Marilyn Reinert and Charles Eisenbrown.

During the ninth year of their school career members of the class participated in the junior high operetta, "White Gypsy." The Senior Woman's Club awards were received by Janice Neuroth and Omar Greene.

The cast of the operetta, "In Gay Havana," presented by the mixed chorus of 1945, included many members of the tenth grade. Carolyn Helms and Henry Gass were awarded the Maiden Creek Hosiery Company prizes. A swimming party followed by a joggie roast climaxed their first year in senior high.

As juniors, the class play, "The Lovely Duckling," was presented on May 16, 17, 1946. On May 25, in the midst of a blue and white setting, they "trapped the night fantastic" to the strains of Harold Harrington's Orchestra. Seven members of the class were inducted into the National Honor Society on March 7, 1946. They were as follows: Rosemarie Galtzert, Kathleen Haines, Carolyn Helms, Henry Gass, Walter Bickel, Arthur Dojan and Thomas Rauenzahn. Carolyn Helms and Henry Gass received the Junior Woman's Club awards for the outstanding students of the eleventh grade.

The senior class presented the three-act comedy, "Ever Since Eve" on November 21, 22. Twelve seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society on March 7, 1947. They were Marilyn Reinert, Janice Neuroth, Ruth Exler, Margaret McWade, Marian Delacker, Helen Reischer, Barbara Schmehl, Omar Greene, Raymond Schlegel, Donald Becker, Aubie Gayler, and Donald Rapp. At the annual senior prom, held on April 18, the class members danced to the music of Jimmy Carl's band. Members of the class participated in the operetta, "A Waltz Dream" which was presented on April 24, 25. This year the renewal of the senior class trips was marked by a one-day cruise up the Hudson on May 24. Baccalaureate services were held at Alsace Reformed Church on June 1.

Our high school days were brought to an impressive close by the presentation of the commencement pageant, "Americans All," on June 5, 6.
